Highgate Community Tennis Club 2017

About the Club

Highgate Community Tennis Club (HCTC) is a vibrant club comprising many cultures. This is a great little place to play tennis in the Milliken Mills community and there is lots of room for new members. The Club is operational from May to late October. The club is located in Highgate Park, beside Highgate Public School.

This year, the club will be reaching out to the community in an effort to increase membership. Junior members will be especially targeted. A full slate of junior and adult programming will be available at the club this season.

Head Pro

This season our Head Pro is Mike Rockman. Mike comes with 25 years of playing experience and 15 years of coaching experience. A former top-ranked Canadian junior and NCAA Division 1 standout, Mike has coached countless players of all ages and skills. His blend of sharp technical knowledge, passion for the game, and kind personality make it an enjoyable learning experience for all.

Lessons with Mike*
